

NORMA MURDOCK BRANDT WRIGHT 1920

I was born in Heber City January 13, 1920 to Nymphus Warren and Emily Catherine Hicken Murdock. My early years were spent between Fruitland and Heber City doing all the things that are done by kids having seven brothers and sisters--milking cows, working in the fields, weeding garden, washing, ironing, swimming, riding horses, getting in trouble.

I graduated from high school and then married John Earl Brandt. We had three children. We left Utah trying to find the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. We divorced and I continued my search for happiness. I lived many places and had many jobs. I worked in the war plant in San Diego as a drill press operator. I worked in Las Vegas at various jobs. In Texas I worked for Texas instruments and I was also in the cosmetic business for thirteen years.

I also buried two husbands in Texas. Claude Houston was one of the first to receive a kidney transplant in Houston. Morris Wright was the second husband I buried. He had open heart surgery and two pacemakers installed before he died.

I moved back to Las Vegas and retired where I spend time with my three children Diane Brandise, Georgia Brandise and Marsha Barkley. I have fifteen grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. I love to travel, dance and spend time with family and friends.

ELLEN DIANE BRANDT BRANDISE 1938

Diane was born November 23, 1938 in Heber City to Norma Murdock and John Earl Brandt. We lived in Heber, Salt Lake and Las Vegas. During my early years I spent a lot of time with my Aunt Fay and Uncle Bud Hilton and consider them my second parents. I married Harry Eugene Brandise December 31, 1956. We raised a family of six and are now enjoying a new phase of our lives travelling. We enjoy going to other parts of the world and experiencing the different cultures and life styles. We look forward to sharing the growth of our grandchildren. We are blessed with good health and feel fortunate have a wonderful family and
